LETTERS FROM OUR CUSTOMERS

March 11, 1921.

The bulbs came today O. K. I want to thank you for such nice, large bulbs. I will know where to send for bulbs next year.

Mrs. E. Kinsman, Michigan.

December 26, 1920.

Received the Purple Glory Bulbs in good order. They are very nice. Thank you for careful packing.

S. E. Spencer, Brookland Gardens, Massachusetts.

March 19, 1921.

First, I wish to thank you for the fine bulbs you sent me a little while ago. Enclosed find my check for $———. Please send me one dozen No. 2 Louise, one dozen No. 1 Alice Tiplady. Please send me immediately, and oblige,

Miss R. Variele, Connecticut.

February 20, 1921.

The bulbs of Louise arrived yesterday, and I have never seen cleaner stock. Thank you for sending me such nice ones.

Dr. Edward Winslow Karcher, Massachusetts.

December 6, 1921.

The 50 Alice Tiplady have been received. Both as to size and quality they are the prettiest bulbs that we have ever received. I bought them to resell, and it is a pleasure to offer them to my customers. We would be glad of your price list every year.

La Floreria, Florists, California.

Department of Entomology, Purdue University, Agricultural Experiment Station. Lafayette, Indiana, March 21, 1921.

Dear Grossman:—In regard to the "Louise," I do not think that I ever saw its equal in exquisite coloring in a gladiolus. I wish that I could afford a whole bed of them. I have quite a variety now. Cordially yours,

Professor J. Troop.

May 6, 1920.

Received yesterday the gladioli bulbs which I ordered from you; also the "extra" which you gave me, for which I wish to thank you and tell you that I appreciate your thoughtfulness very much indeed, and you will be sure to get an order from me for another year. Bulbs were all in fine condition.

Mrs. Walter E. Woolston, New Jersey.

April 22, 1920.

I want to give you an appreciation of the very fine bulbs of gladioli received from you this morning. In making up a very complete collection, I ordered this year's bulbs from about a dozen different growers, and yours were the largest and best looking of the lot, not one being less than two inches in diameter.

D. L. Floore, D. D. S., Wisconsin.

Emmanuel Church Parish, New York. The Rev. Charles E. S. Rasay, M. A. Pastor. March 20, 1920.

The one corm of Lillywhite has just come and shall be planted tomorrow. And also you sent another "extra," the famed "Pride of Goshen." I thank you very much for this, but you have made me feel a bit "uneasy," as if I were receiving too many gifts from a stranger. You really do give almost too many "extras." However, as we are both "Brothers of the Gladiolus Flower," I am accepting the beautiful corms in the same spirit of good cheer in which I am sure they were sent. And so I doff my hat to you and your good wife, with one more "Thank you".

Michigan, December 1, 1922.

Alice Tiplady Bulbs arrived O. K. They are a splendid lot and look good to me. Thank you very much.

Roy Doane.

New York, January 9, 1922.
Bulbs received all O. K. Thank you for good packing, etc.
Howard M. Gillet.

Pennsylvania, April 10, 1922.
I received the bulbs safely today, and must say that I never had an order filled so promptly in the several years I have been raising Gladioli. Thanks you very much for the liberal count, also.

Mrs. Theo. Coulter.

New Hampshire, May 1, 1922.
Received my bulbs all safe and sound. They are certainly fine looking bulbs, and I thank you very much for your liberal measure.

Mrs. H. L. Lang.

Alabama, May 20, 1922.
The Gladioli bulbs received some time ago. They were the prettiest bulbs I have had the pleasure of planting, in fact, I was so well pleased I am making room for a few more which I hope you will be able to send. Halley is in bloom with us now, the individual blossoms measuring $5\frac{1}{4}$ inches across. Many thanks for the extra bulbs you sent me. I am enclosing check with this order.

Mrs. W. W. Harman.

Alabama, September 19, 1922.
My Gladioli from you were beautiful, coming at a time when flowers were scarce, and long after the blooming season for Gladiolus here with us.

Mrs. W. W. Harman.

Ohio, February 22, 1922.
The bulbs arrived O. K. and in splendid condition, and sure are dandies; are more than satisfactory and I want you to accept my thanks for such grand bulbs and liberal count. Also, I wish to express my gratitude to you for sending them by P. P. and saving extra cost, which is, indeed, very, very much appreciated. Will enclose the amount of postage, along with my very best wishes and kindly regards.

P. F. Mercer.

Ohio, December 5, 1922.
Your kind letter and price list is at hand, and in reply will say here that the bulbs proved as satisfactory as they appeared when I received them. I just wish you could have seen the monstrous spikes of bloom that they did produce. We were certainly gratified and pleased with them. Now I am enclosing herewith my check for $——, for which please send me etc.

P. F. Mercer.
